

Risk Assessment: Giant Bubbles & Bubble Fairies Performer

Activity: Giant bubble show / roaming bubble fairy entertainment

Location: Various indoor or outdoor event spaces

Date: _____

Assessor: _____

Reviewed: _____

Hazard	Risk	Persons at Risk	Initial Risk
Slips and falls from spilled bubble solution	Injury	Performer & public	Medium
Chemical exposure from bubble fluid	Skin/eye irritation	Performer & public	Low-Medium
Crowd interaction hazards	Trips, collisions	Performer & public	Medium
Weather conditions (wind, rain, sun)	Loss of control, dehydration	Performer, public	Medium
Electrical equipment (music or bubble machines)	Shock, tripping	Performer, staff	Medium
Costume-related hazards	Trips, overheating	Performer	Medium
Soap residue on surfaces	Slips post-event	Public, staff	Medium
Children running toward performer	Trips/collisions	Children	Medium
Fire hazard (from decor/equipment)	Burns, fire	Performer & public	Low

Personal Protective Equipment (PPE):

- Gloves when handling concentrate
- Non-slip shoes
- Lightweight costume
- Optional eye protection during setup

Emergency Procedures:

- First aid kit on site
- Trained first aider present
- Clean spills immediately
- Stop performance if unsafe
- Emergency contacts on hand

Public Liability Insurance:

Performer to hold valid insurance (recommended minimum £5 million). Certificate available upon request.

Conclusion:

With controls in place, the Giant Bubbles and Bubble Fairy performance is considered Low Risk.

Signature: _____ Date: _____